The service conformed to the usual Methodist ritual, the assembled friends joining with the minister in the Shepherd Psalm and the Lord's Prayer; organ music was furnished by Mrs. H. H. Freeman. Many floral tributes were offered.

There will be Christmas services both morning and evening in the North church. Full particulars will be announced later in the week.

HELEN INGHAM SENTENCED

In Orange County Court for Assault and Battery.

Chelsea, Dec. 19.—On the coming in of the Orange county court on the second week, Monday, Dec. 11, the jury trial of the case of John Munn of Fairlee vs. David Caplan of Hanover, N. H., was taken up. This was an action in tort resulting of an automobile collision of two cars owned by the above-named parties near Hanover, N. H., last fall. Both cars were considerably damaged and each one of the parties claimed that the other was to blame for the collision. The jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff to recover from the defendant the sum of $286.84 and his costs. Shields & Conant of St. Johnsbury appeared for the plaintiff and the defendant was represented by Fred E. Jones of Lebanon, N. H.

This being the last jury case for trial, the jurors were dismissed for the term. In the case of Bella E. Walker vs. the estate of Mary P. Hutchinson, John H. DuBois, administrator, both parties of Randolph, judgment was entered for the defendant. Plumley, Plumley and Campbell appeared for the plaintiff and John C. Sherburne for the defendant.

In the case of State vs. Helen Elizabeth Ingham of Tunbridge, who was charged with assault and battery, the respondent pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the house of correction for a term of not less than six months nor more than one year and was committed to that institution on Dec. 13 by Sheriff Dearborn. State's Attorney M. C. Taft prosecuted and the respondent was represented by Hale K. Darling.

Walter Birmingham, who was sentenced for adultery at the June term of court and placed on probation until further order of court, was discharged from probation.

The following divorce cases were disposed of during the last week of court: In the case of Ladd Smith of Randolph vs. Earl Smith, bill granted for intolerable severity and custody of the minor child of the parties decreed to petitioner. Plumley, Plumley & Campbell appeared for the petitioner.

Tressa Rogers of Thetford vs. George Rogers, bill granted for intolerable severity and care and custody of the two minor children of the parties decreed to the petitioner. Paul Gilloli of White River Junction appeared for the petitioner.

On Wednesday, the 13th, James Howard Page of Bradford was before the court for his naturalization certificate and after examination of himself and his witnesses he was admitted to citizenship.

A pleasant event incident to the December term of court was a banquet given to the court officials by Elmer E. Wallace, janitor at the courthouse for the past 20 years, at his bachelor apartment on Wallace avenue, Wednesday evening, Dec. 13. Janitor Wallace, who stands at the head of the culinary department of his household arose to the occasion and placed before his guests a five-course collation which would make a "Ritz Carlton" sit up and take notice, and after full justice had been done to the abundant menu, and the inner man had been more than satisfied, Host Wallace, adopting the role of toast master, which position he filled with that ease and grace rarely seen other than in a past master of the art, called upon his guests, permitting them to choose their own subject, whether it be narration of personal experience, relating a story or embracing whatever theme they desired; and during this post prandial not only much food for thought was evolved but many pleasing and mirth provoking reminiscences were presented, and it was near the midnight hour before the party broke up with the general feeling that it had been good to be there and the universally expressed hope of "long may Janitor Wallace live and make the event thus instituted by him an annual occurrence."

"Once I Was Blind Now I Can See"

This quotation from a popular hymn covers many statements made to us by coal users this season. Formerly Blind to their own interests as to what Coals they could use profitably. Now Seeing, partly through necessity and our constant urging, that high grade Bituminous Coal and small sizes of Anthracite Coal, when used intelligently, can give satisfactory service and save them money.

Our orders for these Coals are increasing every day and in our opinion the use of them will be a favorable factor in controlling Anthracite Coal prices in the future. Order some now.
